REPORT ON NATIONAL SPORTS DAY CELEBRATION – 2026

Organized by the Sports Committee
Asannagar Madan Mohan Tarkalankar College

Date: 29 August 2026

Venue: College Ground

National Sports Day on the occasion of Birth Anniversary of Major Dhyan Chand Singh

The Sports Committee of Asannagar Madan Mohan Tarkalankar College celebrated National Sports Day on 29 August 2026 with great enthusiasm and active participation from students, teaching and non-teaching staff, NCC cadets, and members of the local community. The programme was organized to commemorate the birth anniversary of the legendary Indian hockey player Major Dhyan Chand Singh and to promote the importance of sports, physical fitness, discipline, teamwork, and a healthy lifestyle.

As part of the celebration, the Sports Committee organized an Intramural Volleyball Tournament at the College Ground. The programme commenced with the inaugural speech delivered by Dr. Biswajit Podder, Teacher-in-Charge of the College. In his address, he highlighted the importance of sports and physical activities in maintaining physical and mental well-being and encouraged the participants to demonstrate the values of discipline, sportsmanship, teamwork, and fair play.

Sri Uttam Kumar Barman delivered the keynote address. He emphasized the significance of National Sports Day and the contribution of Major Dhyan Chand to Indian sports. His inspiring words encouraged the participants to take an active interest in sports and physical activities.

A total of four teams participated in the intramural volleyball tournament, with 40 players taking part in the competition. The tournament witnessed enthusiastic participation and a spirit of healthy competition among the teams. The final match was played between the Faculty team and the NCC Cadets team. After an exciting and competitive match, the Faculty team emerged as the Champion of the tournament.

The programme received an encouraging response from the college community and the local people. Approximately 120 participants and attendees took part in or attended the programme, including teaching staff, non-teaching staff, NCC cadets, Physical Education students and other students of the college. Their active participation made the celebration lively, meaningful, and successful.

At the conclusion of the programme, Dr Biswajit Podder, Teacher-in-Charge, distributed the championship trophy to the winning team in recognition of their outstanding performance in the tournament.

Finally, Dr. Mahaprasad Ghosh, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Physical Education delivered the Vote of Thanks, expressing sincere gratitude to the Teacher-in-Charge, Sports Committee, teaching and non-teaching staff, NCC cadets, Physical Education students, participating teams, and members of the local community for their valuable cooperation and enthusiastic participation.

The entire programme was conducted successfully under the guidance and observation of the Teacher-in-Charge, Dr. Biswajit Podder. The celebration not only commemorated the birth anniversary of Major Dhyan Chand but also successfully promoted the values of physical fitness, sportsmanship, teamwork, discipline, and community participation among the participants.

Conclusion

The National Sports Day Celebration – 2026 was a successful and meaningful initiative of the Sports Committee of Asannagar Madan Mohan Tarkalankar College. The enthusiastic participation of the college community and local residents demonstrated the growing importance of sports and physical activities in building a healthy, disciplined, and socially responsible society.
