Academic Session: 2025-2026
Date: 10 May 2026
Time: 3:00 PM - 4:10 PM
Mode: Online (Google Meet)

Introduction: - The Department of History, Asannagar Madan Mohan Tarkalankar College, successfully organized an online Guardian Meeting on 10 May 2026 through Google Meet. The meeting was convened to strengthen the relationship between the department and the guardians of students, to discuss academic progress, and to promote a collaborative approach towards the overall development of the students of the Second, Fourth, and Sixth Semesters.

Approximately ten guardians participated in the meeting along with all faculty members of the Department of History. The programme provided an important platform for meaningful interaction between the teachers and guardians regarding students' academic performance, attendance, discipline, career prospects, and future educational goals.

Proceedings of the Meeting:- The meeting commenced with a welcome address by Sri Partha Banerjee, Head of the Department of History, who highlighted the significance of maintaining regular communication between teachers and guardians. He emphasized that active parental involvement plays a crucial role in ensuring the academic success and personal development of students.

Subsequently, Dr. Nilendu Biswas delivered an insightful address on the responsibilities of guardians in guiding students toward a bright future. He stressed the importance of creating a supportive home environment, encouraging regular study habits, and helping students make informed decisions regarding higher education and career opportunities.

During the interactive session, all faculty members shared their observations and suggestions concerning students' academic progress and overall well-being. They encouraged guardians to remain actively involved in monitoring their wards' educational activities and to maintain regular communication with the department whenever necessary.

Although the number of participating guardians was comparatively modest, the discussions were highly productive and meaningful. The interaction revealed that students are receiving substantial academic support, guidance, and mentoring from the teachers of the History Department. Guardians expressed their appreciation for the sincere efforts made by the faculty members in addressing students' academic needs and personal concerns.

Guardians' Feedback:-Several guardians actively participated in the discussion and shared their valuable opinions and experiences. Noteworthy contributions were made by: The mother of Sneha Ghosh, The sister of Rajendra Biswas, The mother of Priyanka Biswas. They expressed their gratitude towards the department for its continuous academic guidance and support. They also appreciated the teachers' dedication to maintaining close contact with students and helping them overcome academic challenges.

Outcome of the Meeting: - The meeting successfully achieved its objectives of enhancing cooperation between guardians and faculty members, discussing students' progress, and creating awareness about the collective responsibility of teachers and parents in shaping students' futures. The interaction strengthened mutual understanding and reinforced the commitment of both guardians and teachers towards the academic and personal development of the students.

Conclusion:-The Guardian Meeting concluded on a positive and constructive note. In his closing remarks, Sri Partha Banerjee, Head of the Department, thanked all the guardians and faculty members for their active participation and valuable contributions. He expressed hope that such meetings would continue to foster a strong partnership between the department and the guardians for the holistic development of the students.
