Report on Doctors' Day Celebration

- Organized by: NSS Unit, Asannagar Madan Mohan Tarkalankar College
- Date: 1 July 2026
- Venue: Smart Classroom, Asannagar Madan Mohan Tarkalankar College and Asannagar Rural Hospital
- Total Participants: 38

The NSS Unit of Asannagar Madan Mohan Tarkalankar College observed Doctors' Day on 1 July 2026 with due solemnity and enthusiasm. The programme was organized to commemorate the birth and death anniversary of Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy, one of India's most distinguished physicians, statesmen, and social reformers. The celebration aimed to pay tribute to his remarkable legacy and to acknowledge the invaluable contributions of doctors and healthcare professionals to society. A total of 38 participants, including faculty members, NSS volunteers, and students, took part in the programme. The celebration was conducted in two phases.

Phase I: Celebration Session at the College

The first phase of the programme was organized in the Smart Classroom of the college in the form of an academic seminar. The seminar commenced with an introductory lecture delivered by Dr. Biswajit Podder, Teacher-in-Charge of the college, who highlighted the significance of Doctors' Day and reflected on the immense contribution of the medical fraternity to the welfare of humanity. He emphasized the role of doctors as guardians of public health and acknowledged their dedication and selfless service to society.

This was followed by an address from Dr. Mahaprasad Ghosh, NSS Convenor, who spoke about the importance of social commitment, humanitarian values, and the spirit of service embodied by medical professionals. He encouraged students to develop a sense of responsibility towards society and to appreciate the noble work performed by doctors.

An excellent and thought-provoking speech was delivered by Dr. Chirantan Sarkar, Department of English. In his insightful address, he discussed the ethical dimensions of the medical profession and emphasized the values of compassion, dedication, and empathy that define true service to humanity.

The programme was further enriched by a valuable presentation delivered by Partha Banerjee, Department of History, who shared memories and reflected on the remarkable life, achievements, and enduring legacy of Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy. He highlighted Dr. Roy's outstanding contributions to medicine, education, public administration, and nation-building, inspiring the participants to appreciate his lifelong dedication to public service.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Soumen Pal, Department of Philosophy. He expressed heartfelt gratitude to all the speakers, faculty members, NSS volunteers, and participants for their active cooperation and support in making the programme a success. The seminar proved to be both informative and inspiring, enhancing awareness among students regarding the contribution of doctors and reinforcing the values of service, dedication, and humanity.

Phase II: Felicitation Programme at Asannagar Rural Hospital

The second phase of the celebration was conducted at Asannagar Rural Hospital. NSS volunteers, accompanied by faculty members, visited the hospital to express their gratitude and respect towards the doctors serving the local community. As a mark of appreciation, the doctors were felicitated by the NSS Unit for their tireless efforts, dedication, and commitment to public healthcare. The programme served as a meaningful gesture of recognition for the invaluable role played by medical professionals in safeguarding the health and well-being of society.

The interaction between the participants and the doctors provided a valuable learning experience for the students. It helped them gain a deeper understanding of the responsibilities, challenges, and humanitarian aspects of the medical profession. The doctors appreciated the initiative and encouraged the students to continue engaging in activities that promote social welfare and community service.

Outcomes of the Programme

- Paid tribute to the life and legacy of Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy on the occasion of his birth and death anniversary.
- Created awareness regarding the significance of Doctors' Day and the contributions of healthcare professionals.
- Fostered respect and appreciation for doctors and healthcare workers.
- Strengthened the spirit of community service and social responsibility among NSS volunteers.
- Encouraged students to uphold the values of humanity, compassion, and dedication in their personal and professional lives.

The Doctors' Day celebration successfully fulfilled its objectives by honouring the medical profession, commemorating the legacy of Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy, and inspiring students to embrace the values of service, empathy, and social responsibility.
