BRIEF REPORT ON THE OBSERVANCE OF PASCHIMBANGA DIVAS 2026 (20.06.2026)

Asannagar Madan Mohan Tarkalankar College observed Paschimbanga Divas on 20 June 2026 in accordance with the directives of the Government of West Bengal. The programme was organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the college in the Smart Classroom from 11:00 a.m. onwards. The programme commenced with the welcome and felicitation of the Teacher-in-Charge and the resource persons. Dr. Biswajit Podder, Teacher-in-Charge, delivered the welcome address and highlighted the significance of observing Paschimbanga Divas and the importance of understanding the history, culture, and heritage of West Bengal. Three special lectures were delivered by faculty members of the college. Mr. Partha Banerjee, Assistant Professor, Department of History; Dr. Nilendu Biswas, Associate Professor, Department of History; and Dr. Chanchal Mandal, Assistant Professor, Department of Bengali, spoke on different aspects of the history, culture, and intellectual legacy of West Bengal. The lectures generated keen interest among the students and enriched their understanding of the state's rich heritage.

As part of the observance, a Poster Drawing Competition was organized for students on the themes "Amar Chokhe Paschimbanga" and "Banglar Mukh Ami Dekhiyachi". Students participated enthusiastically and displayed their creativity and understanding of the cultural identity of West Bengal. A poster display board prepared from the students' works added significance and aesthetic appeal to the programme. Based on the evaluation of the submitted posters, the college selected the first, second, and third prize winners, who will be awarded books in recognition of their creativity and performance. The programme witnessed active participation from teachers, non-teaching staff, and students of the college. The event successfully fulfilled its objective of creating awareness about the historical, cultural, and social heritage of West Bengal and promoting a sense of belonging and appreciation among the students. The programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by the IQAC Coordinator.
